Subject to compliance with the Regulations and the circumstances mentioned in the Offering Document, the Management Company may request the Trustee to approve a temporary change in the method of dealing in Units.

13.3 Suspension of Redemption of Units

- 13.3.1 The Redemption of Units may be suspended during extraordinary circumstances including closure of the money market, capital market, capital market infrastructure institutions and scheduled banks, the existence of a state of affairs, which in the opinion of the Management Company, constitutes an emergency as a result of which disposal of any investment would not be reasonably practicable or might seriously prejudice the interest of the Scheme or of the Unit Holder(s), or a break down in the means of communication normally employed in determining the price of any investment, or when remittance of money cannot be carried out in reasonable time and if the Management Company is of the view that it would be detrimental to the remaining Unit Holder(s) to redeem Units at a price so determined in accordance with the Net Asset Value (NAV). The Management Company may announce a suspension of redemption and such a measure shall be taken to protect the interest of the Unit Holder(s) in the event of extraordinary circumstances.

- 13.3.2 Redemption requests received / remain in queue on the day of the suspension would be considered as deactivated. However, on the first Dealing Day after the removal of the suspension, the unit holder may file a fresh request for the redemption.

13.4 Queue System

In the event redemption requests on any day exceed ten percent (10%) of the Units in issue, the Management Company may invoke a queue system whereby requests for redemption shall be processed on a first come first served basis for up to ten percent (10%) of the Units in issue. The Management Company shall proceed to sell adequate assets of the Fund and/ or arrange financing as it deems fit in the best interest of the Holders and shall determine the Redemption Price to be applied to the redemption requests based on such action. Where it is not practical to determine the chronological ranking of any requests in comparison to others received on the same Business Day, such requests shall be processed on a proportional basis proportionate to the size of the requests. The redemption requests in excess of ten percent (10%) of the Units in issue will be carried over to the next Business Day. However, if the carried over requests and the fresh requests received on the next Subscription Day still exceeds ten percent (10%) of the Units in issue, these shall once again be treated on first-come-first-served basis and the process for generating liquidity and determining the Redemption Price shall be repeated and such procedure shall continue till such time the outstanding redemption requests come down to a level below ten percent (10%) of the Units then in issue.

13.5 Suspension of Fresh Issue of Units

- 13.5.1 The Management Company may, under certain circumstances, suspend issue of fresh Units. These circumstances may include

- The situation referred in Clause 13.2 or 13.3 of this Re-Statement of Trust Deed this Re-Statement of Trust Deed;
- A situation in which it is not possible to invest the amount received against issuance of fresh units;
- Any other situation in which issuance of fresh units is, in Management Company's opinion, against the interests of the existing/remaining unit holders.

- 13.5.2 Such suspension may however not affect existing subscribers for the issue of bonus Units as a result of profit distribution. The Management Company shall announce the details of exemptions at the time a suspension of fresh issue is announced. The Management Company shall immediately notify the SECP and Trustee if issuance of Units is suspended and shall also have the fact published, immediately following such decision, in the newspapers in which the Fund's prices are normally published.

- 13.5.3 In case of suspension of redemption of units due to extraordinary circumstances the issuance of Units shall also be kept suspended until and unless redemption of Units is resumed

- 13.5.4 Investment applications received on the day of suspension will not be processed and the amount received shall be returned to the investor.
